The lesson on multivariate distributions should include the following concepts:

- Joint discrete/continuous distributions
- Marginal probability functions
- Conditional probability functions